Single Living Root Bridge (Riwai) – A smaller cousin of the Nongriat bridge, it still serves as a footpath for villagers and showcases Khasi innovation. Bamboo Skywalk – A handmade tower providing panoramic views of the India-Bangladesh border. Built entirely with bamboo, it’s a sustainable architectural gem. Continue down to: Dawki – Known for the Umngot River, whose crystal-clear waters are famous for making boats appear to float in the air. Once a trade route to Bangladesh, now a top destination for kayaking and boating. 4th Night Check-in on July 7 ROOMS Shnongpdeng – A tranquil village upstream from Dawki, surrounded by jungle and cliffs.
